

Trio Sooäär - Vaigla – Ruben

Jazz-Rock
from Estonia

Jaak Sooäär
electric guitar

Raul Vaigla
bass guitar

Tanel Ruben
drums

St Andrew's in the Square

25 October 3 pm

1 St Andrew's Square, G1 5PP Glasgow

Free entry

Estonian jazz trio Sooäär-Vaigla-Ruben have played together for almost 10 years.

In spring 2009 the trio released their second album "Tuljak" which contains jazz arrangements of choral songs by the first Estonian female composer Miina Härma (1864-1941).

The trio has performed in most parts of Estonia and also abroad: in Baku, Azerbaijan and St.Petersburg, Russia.

Jaak Sooäär is one of the most active jazz musicians of the Baltic region. He plays with different internationally renowned jazz groups and has also worked with Ray Anderson, Conny Bauer, Han Bennink, Will Calhoun, Anders Jormin, Joe Lovano and others.*

Raul Vaigla has played for many years with jazzrock groups Radar and V.S.P. Project and has released his solo CD in Finland. He is also the establishing member of Estonian cult rock band Ultima Thule.*

Tanel Ruben is one of the most sought after drummers in Estonia. He has performed together with many internationally renowned musicians and has released three CDs.*