

Uralic Peoples Film Festival and Lectures

9-13 November 2009
University of Glasgow

Ancient shamanistic rituals, living according to the laws of nature and the indigenous peoples' traditional lifestyle in the globalising world

- Mon 9.11 5.30 pm, 8-9 Lilybank Gardens – Lecture by Prof. János Pusztay (University of West Hungary)
The Finno-Ugric National Minorities in Russia
7 pm, Gilmorehill G12 – The Waterfowl People (L.Meri, 1972)
- Tue 10.11 5 pm, 8-9 Lilybank Gardens – Lecture by Dr Eva Toulouze (INALCO, Paris)
The history of the Finno-Ugric peoples in Russia – Imperial times, period of Sovetisation and the present situation.
7 pm, Gilmorehill G12 – Yuri Vella's World (L.Niglas, 2003)
- Wed 11.11 5 pm, Gilmorehill G12 - Shaman (L.Meri, 1977-1997)
The Sons of Torum (L.Meri 1989) – films are introduced by Mart Meri, head of the Estonian Institute.
7 pm, Gilmorehill G12 – Father, Son and Holy Torum (M. Soosaar, 1997)
- Thu 12.11 5 pm, 8-9 Lilybank Gardens – Lecture by Dr Eva Toulouze (INALCO, Paris) The traditional ways of living and survival. Adaptational models of the intellectuals among indigenous peoples in Russia.
- Fri 13.11 5 pm, Gilmorehill G12 – My Home, My Heartache (T.Haugseth 2004)
Introduced by Toomas Lapp (Lecture Sami peoples and their ways of living)
7 pm, Gilmorehill G12 – Autumn in Ob River (J.Simm, 2004)
8 pm, Gilmorehill G12 – Flight (V.Kuik 1995)

For more information go to http://www.gla.ac.uk/media/media_134749_en.pdf