

Seminar Series: April - May 2011

Seminars are held in The Teaching Room (unless otherwise stated), Urban Studies, 25 Bute Gardens, commencing at 3.30 p.m. (unless otherwise stated) and concluding at 5.00-5.15 p.m. Following the Seminar, refreshments are served in the Coffee area of 25 Bute Gardens.

Crime and House Price Effects: A New Approach to Evaluating the Welfare Impacts of Amenities and Disamenities

Chris Timmins (Associate Professor Duke University and National Bureau of Economic Research)

Joint seminar with the Scottish Centre for Crime and Justice Research and Social Science Statistics Group.

Wednesday 27 April 2011 at 3.30 pm.

Do women delay family formation in expensive housing markets?

Bill Clark (Professor of Geography, University of California, Los Angeles)

6 May 2011 at 3,30pm

Inspiring Capital? Deconstructing Myths and Reconstructing Urban Environments, Edinburgh 1860-2010

Rebecca Madgin (Lecturer in European Planning History, University of Leicester)

Friday, 13 May 2011 at 3.30 p.m.

The Joseph Rowntree Foundation (JRF) Housing Market Taskforce: towards a socially sustainable housing market

Mark Stephens (Professor in Urban Economics, University of Glasgow)

Delivering affordable housing in Scotland: National Report from the JRF Housing and Neighbourhoods Monitor

Ken Gibb (Professor of Housing Economics, University of Glasgow).

Friday, 20th May 2011 at 3pm to 5pm.

This Series is open to all students and staff of the University and to people from outside the University. An abstract is usually circulated via e-mail several days before each Seminar. For further information and final confirmation of any Seminar, please contact Mark Livingston on (0141) 330 6162 or mark.livingston@glasgow.ac.uk