

THE WEE BANNOCK

A story in Scots.

Written and illustrated by Miriam Kelly

Lang Lang ago an auld Wifie and an auld manie lived in a wee cottage.

BESide a burn They didnt Have much but they had just enough to help them eat.

In day a auld wife and Mannie ate their morning Poffidge. Then the auld wifie made some blaw hot oat meal bannocks. The wee bannock woke up in horror to find his best friend being eaten so he jumped up and started running awa-

The wee bannock met a cuddy. You look good enough to eat said the cuddy.

So the wee bannock kept on running until she came to a Princess. She said come and meet my mouth but the bannock didn't trust her. So the Princess said come here now.
She tried to catch her. The Princess missed and the wee bannock got away.

The wee bannock was starting to feel a bit Sleepy but he kept on running because he knew that if he stopped he would get eaten. Then he met a tiger Oooooh said the tiger. what are you he asked. i am the wee bannock. and he ran away over the bridge.

The wee bannock ran on and then he came to a fox. You look good enough to eat said the fox. So he swallowed him in his gulp but. The wee bannock tickled the foxes mouth and got away.
