

UNDERSTANDINGS OF PLACE, PLACE-MAKING AND HOME

Monday 31 October 2011

Yudowitz seminar room, Wolfson Medical Building,

University of Glasgow, University Avenue

Schedule

0945-10.00 Arrival/tea & coffee

10.00-10.05 Introduction, Professor Rebecca Kay (Central and East European Studies/ Glasgow Refugee Asylum and Migration Network (GRAMNet)), Dr Jon Oldfield (CEES)

10.05-11.00 Session exploring different ways of representing ideas of 'place and home' through story-telling and photography.

Ewan McVicar (Scottish Storytelling Centre) – explorations of 'place' and 'home' through storytelling

Iseult Timmermans (Street Level Photoworks) – explorations of 'place' and 'home' through photography

11.00-11.15 Break

11.15-12.15 Small group work – students will explore the objects and/or photographs that they have brought in with them which represent an aspect of 'home'. Working as a small group or individually – students will produce a poster representing their ideas about and experiences of 'place' and 'home'.

12.15-1300 Lunch

13.00-14.00 Group presentations – students will have an opportunity to feedback to the larger group. This session will be facilitated by Ewan McVicar, Becka Kay and the other members of the organising group. It will include a short film about 'place and home'.

14.00 Departure

Coordinating group:

Ewan McVicar, Scottish Storytelling Centre

Iseult Timmermans (Street Level Photoworks)

Prof Rebecca Kay (Central and East European Studies/ GRAMNet)

Lea Kreinin (Central and East European Studies)

Dr Jon Oldfield (Central and East European Studies)

Dr Elwira Grossman (School of Modern Languages and Cultures)

Dr Evelyn Arizpe (School of Education)

Giovanna Fassetta (University of Strathclyde)

Dr Katarzyna Kosmala (University of the West of Scotland)