

A Long Way from Home: The Baltic People in the United Kingdom at University of Glasgow, CEES, 7 and 8 February 2013

7 February

10.45 - 11.00 Registration - University Chapel (Map: A 8)

- 11.00 Exhibition - When the War was Over: European Refugees After 1945. Opening by Richard Berry, Director of CRCEES
- 11.15 Ambassador of the Estonian Republic, HE Aino Lepik von Wirén
- 11.30 Documentary film by Helga Merits (NL) – Class of 1943: Remember us when we are gone (the life story of a generation uprooted from a normal life by WW II)
- 12.30 Walk around the university main campus – Hunterian Museum, Mackintosh House etc.
- 13.00 Lunch (Room TBC)

14.00 -15.00 Presentations - 8 Lilybank Gardens, CEES Seminar room (Map: D 16)

Kęstutis Raškauskas - Lithuanian immigrants in late Victorian and Edwardian London

Vytautas Petronis - Lithuanians in Scotland: History of the Diaspora and Challenges of the Research

15.00 - 15.30 Coffee/Tea

15.30 - 17.00 Presentations - 8 Lilybank Gardens, CEES Seminar room (Map: D 16)

Tina Tamman - The role of the Estonian embassy in London in looking after refugees

Mariana Semenyshyn - Post-war migration from Baltic states and Ukraine to Britain: a comparative analysis

Eva Eglāja-Kristšone - The Case Study of Latvian Writer Guntis Zariņš: Reconfiguring Liminality in Exile

17.30 - 19.00 Concert and reception in Ferguson Room (Map: A 9)

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

8 February

9.45 - 10.00 Morning coffee, Wolfson Medical Building Foyer (Map: C 8)

10.00 - 12.00 Presentations, Gannochy Seminar Room (No 3)

Dace Dzernovska - Mad at the State: Affect and the Politics of Latvian Diaspora

Elina Apsite - Berina, Zaiga Krisjane, Maris Berzins - Migration since the EU enlargement: migrant groups and patterns – the case of Latvia

Vytis Ciubrinskas - Diaspora as a Resource of Transnational Belonging

David McCollum - Examining labour migration channels - the case of Latvia from EU accession to economic recession

12.00 - 12.10 Poster presentations - Introduction

Anne Valmas - Publishing Activities of Estonians in England

Maarja Merivoo-Parro - Ad fontes far away – tracing the history of Estonians in England on the wrong side of the Atlantic

12.10 -13.30 Lunch. Posters are available in the foyer.

13.30 -14.30 Presentations, Gannochy Seminar Room (No 3)

Aija Lulle - Baltic media discourses on return migration: construction of a desired returnee

Inga Freimane – Portrayal of Baltic people in the British media.