

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 1, No.1
Recipient: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William
Place of Recipient: London
Correspondent: Currie, James
Date: 07 December 1797
Place: Liverpool
Subject: Currie writes to his publishers with details of the publication of Burns's 'posthumous works', and outlines his plans for the edition.
Burns' Biography: Description of Currie's meeting with Burns; the poet is attractive although 'he outrages taste'.
Burns' Works: Correspondence; Songs from George Thomson's Collections, lyrics, 'Bruce's Address'.
People Mentioned: John Syme; John McCreery; Drs. Gregory and Blair; William Creech
Burns' Family Members: Gilbert Burns (brother) as assisting Life
Writers and Texts: George Thomson's 'Select Collection'; William Roscoe
Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: News of 200 subscribers to rival Shakespeare
Letter as Response to:
No in Seq: 1/2, 12pp
Notes: Currie discusses Dumfries and describes his printer, John McCreery, who 'understands the dialect'. He describes John Syme as Burns's guardian angel.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 1, No.2

Recipient: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Place of Recipient: London

Correspondent: Currie, James

Date: 12 February 1804

Place: Liverpool

Subject: Currie writes to his publishers with comments and criticisms of Chalmers' Life of Burns, focusing on Chalmers's unrelenting descriptions of Burns's 'faults' and expressing concern at the biography.

Burns' Biography: Statement that Burns was 'obnoxious to political censure'; a description of his role in excise.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: William Chalmers' Life of Burns; Robert Heron

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/2, 8pp

Notes: Currie Criticises Robert Chalmers' 'fresh exposure of his faults and failings'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 10, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Mackenzie, Henry

Date: 22 October 1802

Place: Tax Office, Edinburgh

Subject: Henry Mackenzie writes to correct Currie's inaccurate attribution of a poem to Burns, asserting it is actually a work by 'Mack'.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Lines from window of Inn in Dumfriesshire (Lines written at the Globe Tavern).

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/2, 3pp

Notes: Mackenzie describes his lot: 'My time devoted to Business, & my Thoughts alas! to Affliction'; he asserts that Currie's edition has done a 'great service'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 10, No.2

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Mackenzie, Henry

Date: 28 August 1804

Place: Tax Office, Edinburgh

Subject: Henry Mackenzie describes Burns's visits, the poet's time in Edinburgh and mentions unpublished letters by Burns in the hands of George Thomson.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Correspondence: Burns's letters in possession of George Thomson.

People Mentioned: Alexander Frazer Tytler (Woodhouselee); George Thomson

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to: dated '29th July' (1804)

No in Seq: 2/2, 3pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 11, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Moore, Sir John

Date: 14 June 1802

Place: London

Subject: John Moore writes to thank Currie for his copy of the edition, and discusses Currie's friendship with Moore's son, Graham. He plans a visit to Liverpool.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Graham Moore

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 3pp

Notes: This letter is addressed to Capt. 'Edward Currie, on the half-pay of the 56th Regt., Edin', Miss Maclaurin, at Mr Gibson, Surgeon, Edin'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 12, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Murdoch, John

Date: 23 June 1802

Place: Hart Street, London

Subject: John Murdoch writes with a transcription of a passage from the New York Advertiser, 1801. He forwards a letter and gives a sketch of his friendship with Burns.

Burns' Biography: Description of Burns's relationships with John Murdoch and with his father, William Burnes.

Burns' Works: Correspondence: letter to John Murdoch, Ellisland, July 16, 1790

People Mentioned: Thomas Telford

Burns' Family Members: Gilbert Burns (brother); William Burnes (father)

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/2, 2pp

Notes: Murdoch includes a passage transcribed from New York Advertiser, 1801.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 12, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Murdoch, John

Date: 29 July 1803

Place: Hart Street, London

Subject: John Murdoch writes with news of the death of Frank Wallace Burns, and tells of the Earl of Glencairn's illness.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Rev. Thomas Clarke; James McClure; Earl of Glencairn

Burns' Family Members: Frank Wallace Burns (son), Jean Armour (wife)

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/2, 2pp

Notes: Murdoch on Frank Wallace Burns, Burns's second son: 'He was a very promising youth'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 13, No.1
Recipient: Currie, James
Place of Recipient: Liverpool
Correspondent: Ramsay of Ochtertyre, John
Date: 14 July 1799
Place: Ochtertyre
Subject: John Ramsay of Ochtertyre responds to Currie's requests to publish his correspondence with Burns. He describes Burns's genius.
Burns' Biography: An account of Burns's 'obstinacy and early piety' and his evolution; description of the Edinburgh literati.
Burns' Works: 'His first effusion' - 'Handsome Nell'?
People Mentioned: Thomas Stothard; Henry Drummond-Home; Robert Bruce; Hayes
Burns' Family Members: Jean Armour (wife); description of the family home
Writers and Texts: William Shakespeare; James Thomson 'Seasons'; Allan Ramsay's 'Gentle Shepherd' and others
Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie's 'splendid' edition
Letter as Response to: 'yours of the 25th June' (1799)
No in Seq: 1/3, 8pp
Notes: Ramsay on the poet: 'Poor Burns... in truth a sort of comet in literature...'; he is characterised by 'sparks of celestial fire'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 13, No.2

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Ramsay of Ochtertyre, John

Date: 21 September 1799

Place: Ochtertyre

Subject: John Ramsay of Ochtertyre discusses 'broad Scots', 'our ancient poets', and Scottish literary history.

Burns' Biography: Description of the influence of Allan Ramsay and older Scots poets; account of Burns as a member of the 'peasantry'.

Burns' Works: 'Burns' songs in Johnston's collection'

People Mentioned: Robert Anderson; Alexander Frazer Tytler; James V; Tom Paine

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Hailes; Bannatyne MSS; Allan Ramsay, Evergreen; John Barbour; William Dunbar

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to: 'yours of the 7th' (September 1799)

No in Seq: 2/3, 10pp

Notes: Ramsay provides a mini-history of Scottish poetry: he mentions Bannatyne, Dunbar, Buchanan, The Gentle Shepherd, etc., etc.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 13, No.3

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Ramsay of Ochertyre, John

Date: 15 September 1800

Place: Ochertyre

Subject: John Ramsay of Ochertyre discusses Burns's genius, and describes his poetic contribution.

Burns' Biography: Assertion that the poet 'never was...addicted...to alcohol'. Account of his death and relationship with Dr. Gregory.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Dr. James Gregory

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Alexander Pope; William Collins

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Ramsay of Ochertyre's comments on Currie's edition

Letter as Response to: 'yours of the 4th of August' (1800)

No in Seq: 3/3, 4pp

Notes: Ramsay on Currie's edition: 'I have devoured your Edition of Burns's works with great avidity'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 14, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Scott, Sir Walter

Date:

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: Walter Scott discusses the Scottish Ballads. He describes Burns's successes, and attributes authorship to 'The Song of Evan Banks' - see note.

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's poetic successes and his use of the Scottish ballads.

Burns' Works: Scott's doubts over Currie's attribution of poem to Burns in 'Evan Banks'.

People Mentioned: Mr. Heber

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Scottish Ballads: 'Lady Maisry' and 'Tam Lane'; 'Rob Roy's Address'

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 4pp

Notes: Scott on correct attribution: 'The Song of Evan Banks' - 'Is this written by Burns?' Scott doubts attribution, and quotes Scottish ballads.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 15, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Stewart, Dugald

Date: 21 May 1798

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: Dugald Stewart gives a description of his relationship with Burns, and discusses the poet's politics.

Burns' Biography: Description of Burns's friendship with Dugald Stewart and an account of the poet's time in Edinburgh and Ayrshire.

Burns' Works: Correspondence: 'few of his letters still in my possession'; Burns's corpus.

People Mentioned: William Duncan

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/7, 6pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 15, No.2

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Stewart, Dugald

Date: 17 November 1798

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: Dugald Stewart gives a sketch of his own professional life, and describes his friendship with Burns.

Burns' Biography: Assertion that Stewart knew Burns 'in the best and happiest period of his life'.

Burns' Works: Correspondence: 'some letters in Burns's hand-writing'

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/7, 4pp

Notes: Stewart asks for Currie's MS to be conveyed to Edinburgh, in order for him to answer Currie's queries.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 15, No.3

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Stewart, Dugald

Date: 22 May 1799

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: Dugald Stewart praises Burns's genius and describes his own editorial projects, providing notes for Currie.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Rev. George Bannatine; Gladstones; Dr. James Mundell

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Sends a volumd of poems by 'a very obscure man in Glasgow' (Thomas Campbell?)

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 3/7, 5pp

Notes: Stewart is 'accompanying a present of the Pleasures of Hope'. He helps with notes on Burns, and asserts that he does not want his name mentioned.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 15, No.4

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Stewart, Dugald

Date: 12 August 1799

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: Duglad Stewart refers to a former letter to Currie describing Burns, and outlines his university work.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Is the 'obscure man' Campbell? (See note)

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 4/7, 4pp

Notes: Stewart says that Campbell is 'truly happy' at Currie's comments on 'The Pleasures of Hope' - is he the writer?

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 15, No.5

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Stewart, Dugald

Date:

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: Dugald Stewart discusses Burns's education, and describes the poet's memorial to Robert Fergusson and his letters.

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's knowledge of the French language and his memorial to Robert Fergusson in Edinburgh's Canongate Kirkyard.

Burns' Works: Correspondence: letter published in the Statistical Account (see note).

People Mentioned: Alexander Cunningham; Sir John Sinclair

Burns' Family Members: Gilbert Burns (brother), 'whose judgement and taste he valued...highly'

Writers and Texts: Rabelais - Burns reads him in 'old French'; Robert Fergusson

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie's Review of Dr. Reid

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 5/7, 4pp

Notes: Stewart doesn't recall the volume in which Burns's letter to the statistical account appeared, but it is signed 'A Peasant'

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 15, No.6

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Stewart, Dugald

Date: 06 September 1800

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: Dugald Stewart introduces Currie to Messrs Ward and Webb, and thanks the editor for the present of 'your late publication'.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Ward; Lord Dudley; Webb

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: 'your late publication'

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 6/7, 3pp

Notes: Stewart describes 'the very great pleasure I have received from your late publication'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 15, No.7

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Stewart, Dugald

Date: 08 November 1802

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: Dugald Stewart describes his business and asks about Currie's health. He describes his biography of Dr. Reid.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Mr Graham; Percival, Ward; Houldbrooke; Rathbone

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Dugald Stewart's 'Life and Writings of Dr Reid'

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: 'your invaluable life of Burns'

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 7/7, 4pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 16, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Thomson, George

Date: 14 September 1798

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: George Thomson encloses a copy of 'The Lass of Ballochmyle' and a transcription of Burns's accompanying letter to Wilhelmina Alexander.

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's relationship with Wilhelmina Alexander, 'The Bonny Lass of Ballochmyle'.

Burns' Works: 'The Lass of Ballochmyle'; letter to Miss Wilhelmina Alexander.

People Mentioned: Wilhelmina Alexander; George Thomson's 'earnest' 'solicitations for MS

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/6, 2pp+4pp

Notes: Thomson is happy for his letters to be published, but with motive, or 'the merciless reviewers will give me no quarter'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 16, No.2

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Thomson, George

Date: 26 July 1799

Place: Trustee's Office, Edinburgh

Subject: George Thomson discusses Burns's letters to his friends Nicol and Ainslie, and describes his attempts to procure them.

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's 'political indiscretion' at 'Dumfries Theatre'.

Burns' Works: Correspondence: letters to Nicol; Ainslie refuses to give up his letters from Burns.

People Mentioned: William Nicol; Dr. Alexander Adam; Charles Douglas; Robert Ainslie

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: John Ramsay of Ochertyre

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/6, 3pp

Notes: Thomson's reply concerning 'political indiscretions' 'cannot be found', he talks of 'The Bonny Lass of Ballochmyle': 'omit whatever is superfluous or improper'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 16, No.3

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Thomson, George

Date: 08 September 1799

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: George Thomson writes with an account of Burns's friend, Ainslie. He discusses Clarinda, 'Holy Willie's Prayer' and describes songs.

Burns' Biography: Discussion of the poet's relationship with 'Clarinda', Agnes M'Lehose.

Burns' Works: 'Holy Willie's Prayer', 'The Jolly Beggars' (see note).

People Mentioned: Robert Ainslie; Clarinda (Agnes M'Lehose); William Nicol; Allan Masterton; Knox; Cadell and Davies

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: George Thomson's song on Burns: 'The Happy Trio'

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Robert Heron; other editions of Burns; fifty copies of 'Holy Willie's Prayer' sold per year

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 3/6, 3pp

Notes: Thomson on Burns's religious satires: 'Holy Willie's Prayer...is so universally admired for the keenness of its satire against those canting hypocrites...'

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 16, No.4

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Thomson, George

Date: 12 September 1799

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: George Thomson encloses a copy of 'Highland Airs'. He discusses Burns's works with special emphasis on his songs.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Songs, Thomson sends transcriptions of Burns's Works.

People Mentioned: Julius Cosar Ibbetson (landscape painter); Vernon; Robert Ainslie

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Patrick McDonald's 'Highland Airs'; William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: 'The printed Poems of Burns'

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 4/6, 2pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 16, No.5

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Thomson, George

Date: 01 September 1801

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: George Thomson gives remarks on Currie's edition; discusses his song collection.

Burns' Biography: Description of the influence of 'national music and songs' on Burns.

Burns' Works: Correspondence: Thomson asks Currie for the return of manuscripts.

People Mentioned: Miss Currie; 'Leo the 10th'; Francis Dunlop

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Richard Savage; Thomson's Collection; William Roscoe's Life of Lorenzo De Medici, 'verses'

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie's 'superb copy of Burns'

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 5/6, 3pp

Notes: Like others, Thomson is impressed by Currie's 'remarks concerning the Scottish Peasantry'; he quotes from 'beautiful verses'. Ramsay (of Ochertyre) is also mentioned.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 16, No.6

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Thomson, George

Date: 10 June 1802

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: George Thomson sends Miss Currie his new edition of songs, and introduces new songwriters.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Correspondence: Thomson again applies to have his correspondence returned.

People Mentioned: Miss Currie

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Thomson's new edition; Mrs [Anne] Grant [of Laggan]; Patrick Mcdonald's 'Highland Airs'; William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 6/6, 2pp

Notes: Thomson on a new songstress: 'the Lyric Muse of Caledonia, though in deep mourning for the loss of Burns, has been visiting...the widow of a clergyman in Badenoch'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 17, No.1a,b

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Thomson, William

Date: 27 August 1798

Place: Dumfries

Subject: William Thomson writes with the Minutes of the meeting of Burns's Trustees discussing Currie's edition.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: John Syme; Cadell and Davies; John McMurdo; William Maxwell

Burns' Family Members: Currie's edition to benefit family

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: First agreements / figures for Currie's edition

Letter as Response to: Currie's letter to John Syme of 23 August (1798)

No in Seq: 1/1, 1p+2pp

Notes: Thomson asserts that copyright is to belong to Cadell and Davies; gives directions for payment.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Beddoes, Thomas

Date: 07 December 1797

Place: London

Subject: A fellow physician, Beddoes requests the use of Currie's medical material in his lectures. He discusses medical issues and subscriptions to Currie's edition.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Mr. Cottle, bookseller in Bristol and suspended subscriptions

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Cottle (bookseller) 'has suspended the proposal respecting Burns'

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 4pp

Notes: This letter concerns mainly medical matters; Burns is only mentioned towards the end of Beddoes's narrative.

Letter is mainly on medical matters; there is only very short mention of Burns at the end

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.10

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Mackintosh, James

Date: 15 August 1800

Place: London

Subject: James Mackintosh writes to praise Currie's edition and discusses the formation of library.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Francis Bacon; Walter Raleigh; Hooker; Burton; John Milton; Barrow; J. Taylor; William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 4pp

Notes: Mackintosh on Currie's edition: 'I scarcely am acquainted with any book which shews so happy an union of a man of taste with a man of science'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.11

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Lawrie, Rev. Archibald

Date: 27 September 1800

Place: St. Margaret's Hill

Subject: Archibald Lawrie gives Currie a description of Burns at Edinburgh, describing his entertainment and the lectures attended by the poet.

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's visit to Edinburgh; we are told that the poet attended lectures by Dugald Stewart. Account of his manners.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Earl of Glencairn; Sir John Whiteford; Professor Dugald Stewart

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Lawrie asks to be included as subscriber to Currie's edition

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 3pp

Notes: The front page of this letter is missing.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.13

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Anderson, James

Date: 29 November 1802

Place: Isleworth

Subject: Anderson writes to praise Currie's edition, and tells of his new work on Mary, Queen of Scots

Burns' Biography: General comments are made about the tragedy of Burns's life

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe; suggests new project'; 'The Bee'; 'Recreation'

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 6pp

Notes: Burns's 'irregularities': 'Poor fellow! he was born to experience pleasure and pains greatly beyond the common boundaries of human nature'

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.14

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Worthington, Robert (?)

Date: 11 February 1804

Place: Ludlow

Subject: Worthington writes in praise of Currie's labours in the edition. He discusses St. Domingo and Burns's works.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Burns's 'English works'.

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Warrington ,'History of Venice', 'a good tragedy'

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 4pp

Notes: Worthington's eldest daughter has learned Burns's English poems by heart; he also praises Currie's remarks on the Scottish Peasantry.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.15
Recipient: Wilson, John
Place of Recipient:
Correspondent: Thomson, George
Date: 14 January 1818
Place: Edinburgh
Subject: George Thomson writes with news of a new edition by Gilbert Burns and queries Currie's assertions and reviews.
Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's role in the Excise office; his flippancy with money and alcohol.
Burns' Works: Correspondence.
People Mentioned: Findlater; Cadell and Davies
Burns' Family Members: Gilbert Burns (brother) to edit new Works (see note); Jean Armour (wife)
Writers and Texts: William Wordsworth; Reviews; asks Wilson to write review
Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie 'must have been misled by his informers'; reviews
Letter as Response to:
No in Seq: 1/1, 8pp
Notes: Thomson on Gilbert Burns, who is 'correcting unjust assertions', but refuses to speak against Currie. Interesting letter - perspective has now changed on Currie's edition; criticism is less positive.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.2

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Coupar, Robert

Date: 23 November 1798

Place: Fochabers

Subject: Robert Coupar describes Burns's visit to Gordon Castle visit and gives an unflattering sketch of his personality. He also describes the peasantry.

Burns' Biography: Description of Burns's visit to Gordon Castle with Nicol, and an unflattering sketch of the poet's manners.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: William Nicol; the virtue of highland peasantry; George III

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Harry Dundas, 'in whose hands blessings dwindle'

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 6pp

Notes: Coupar wishes to 'anticipate the shutting of your [Currie's] mouth about poor Burns', but asserts there is nothing 'to keep it open':
Burns thinks 'grossly' and speaks 'coarsely'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.3

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Erskine, David Stewart, Lord Buchan

Date: 14 September 1799

Place: Dryburgh Abbey

Subject: Lord Buchan writes in response to Currie's request to publish his letters to Burns. He describes Burns in Edinburgh and analyses the poet's language, rejecting Scots.

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's visit to Edinburgh and his relationship with Buchan. Comments on Burns's reading of Allan Ramsay.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Quotes Edmund Waller; 'The Bee'; Allan Ramsay; Horace; Bruce

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to: Currie's of 9 September (1799)

No in Seq: 1/1, 3pp

Notes: Erskine on Burns's language and achievement: 'Burns appeared to me a real Makar, a Creator, a Poet & I wished him to assume the language...of a Briton'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.4

Recipient: Mackenzie, Miss

Place of Recipient: Bostock-Hall

Correspondent: Currie, James

Date: 18 May 1800

Place: Liverpool

Subject: Currie writes to Miss Mackenzie describing the tips to young poets appearing in his edition, and describes his dedication to Graham Moore.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: William Gladstone; Wood; Colonel Frazer; Rathbone; Duncan; Hughes

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Campbell (poet): Currie had the young poet in mind in his literary tips; William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie: 'Burns is finished'

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 7pp

Notes: Four lines of this letter have been scribbled out, by Currie?

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.5

Recipient: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Place of Recipient: London

Correspondent: Beugo, John

Date: 31 May 1800

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: Beugo sends the copperplate of Burns's portrait for Currie's edition of the Works.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 1p

Notes: Beugo has sent 'the copperplate of Burns's portrait engraved for his posthumous works'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.6

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Perochon, Joseph E.

Date: 25 June 1800

Place: London

Subject: Joseph Perochon critiques Currie's edition, discussing the editor's take on the Scottish peasantry, marriage and Calvinism.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Thomas Cadell; Mrs. Francis Dunlop; Mrs Wallace

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 3pp

Notes: Perochon praises Currie; thinks that his thoughts on the peasantry may lead to judicial reform and tells that he prefers Calvinism to English religious forms.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.7

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Telford, Thomas

Date: 26 June 1800

Place: Salop

Subject: Thomas Telford writes with a transcription of a letter by A. Alison, and describes his inability to obtain a copy of Currie's edition.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Dugald Stewart, A. Alison (Rolund of Sarum?)

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 1p

Notes: Telford asserts that the 'transmission of Burns to D. Stewart will probably prevent me from seeing it for many a day. His desire to keep it is incredible'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.8

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Philips, George

Date: 05 July 1800

Place: Manchester

Subject: George Philips writes in praise of Currie's edition, encomiating his account of the Scottish peasantry and Currie's writing style.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Rathbone; Hughes; Duncan; Cramond; Sharp

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Surmises that Huntley is a favourite writer of Currie

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 4pp

Notes: Phillips on Currie's edition: the portrait of the Scottish peasantry is 'drawn from the life'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 18, No.9

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Tytler, Alexander Frazer, Lord Woodhouselee

Date: 08 July 1800

Place: Edinburgh

Subject: Tytler writes in praise of Currie's edition and discusses the suppression of Burns's poetry. He discusses the work of Allan

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's faults and the 'unfortunate defect in the structure of his mind'.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Strachan; Cadell and Davies

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: New edition of Allan Ramsay; Frazer-Tytler contributes a chapter

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/1, 3pp

Notes: Tytler praises Currie's edition specifically because of its 'fine moral lesson', and describes Burns's 'bright but violent career'; 'a veil' should cover the 'defect'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 13 December 1797

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write with plans for the promotion of Currie's new edition and outline subscriptions, noting names to be added to the existing list.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Promise that Currie is to publish the poet's 'posthumous works'.

People Mentioned: William Nicol; Edwards; William Creech; Alexander Cunningham; John Syme; Archibald Lawrie

Burns' Family Members: Subscriptions 'for the family'; Jean Armour (wife)

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Proofs of Currie's proposals; Burns's 'posthumous works'; notes on quarto size

Letter as Response to: Currie's of 7 December (1797)

No in Seq: 1/26, 3pp

Notes: Cadell and Davies assert that Currie's becoming editor of Burns's Life and Works 'would essentially benefit the subscription'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.10

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 26 April 1800

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write with ideas for the distribution of profits to Burns family. They suggest a price of 31/6 for the edition.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Jones (left out of Liverpool booksellers; regret)

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 10/26, 1p

Notes: Currie is instructed to distribute the Burns family's 500 copies 'in any way you think best'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.11

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 21 May 1800

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write requesting an impression of Burns's head for printing, suggesting possible a possible price and ideas for binding.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: John McCreery

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie's personal copy of his edition; he has one 'handsomely bound' for William Roscoe

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 11/26, 2pp

Notes: Cadell and Davies on Currie's edition: 'one of the most pleasing and interesting publications that has appeared for many years'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.12

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 13 June 1800

Place: London

Subject: The publishers discuss printing, binding and the subscribers' entitlement. They suggest a second edition of the edition.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: John McCreery

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Second edition of Currie's text now required

Letter as Response to: 'your favour of the 2nd' (June 1800)

No in Seq: 12/26, 2pp

Notes: Cadell and Davies are taking care to insert apostscript in every copy distributed.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.13

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell Jnr., Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 11 August 1800

Place: London

Subject: Currie's publishers write with details of the sale of his edition, and discuss an edition of Allan Ramsay's works.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Miss D'Aquilar

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Allan Ramsay; Laing's History; Translation of Conrad Gesner's Works

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: 'The Edition of Burns may be considered as gone.'

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 13/26, 2pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.14

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Davies, William

Date: 05 September 1800

Place: London

Subject: William Davies, one of Currie's publishers, writes to tell him that only six copies of his edition are left.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie's edition: 'we, now, have not half a Dozen Copies...left'

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 14/26, 1p

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.15

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 20 December 1800

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write with editorial comments and corrections to Currie's manuscript.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Taylor; Miss D'Aquilar

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Conrad Gesner

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 15/26, 1p

Notes: On the rear side of letter is a table of figures in Currie's hand detailing his expenses as a physician.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.16

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 27 December 1800

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write with editorial comments and a Table of Contents.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Taylor; Mrs. Lawrence

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 16/26, 1p

Notes: Cadell and Davies on the edition: 'we are now extremely anxious to publish'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.17

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 19 May 1801

Place: London

Subject: The publishers announce that the second edition is low in stock and that they are preparing a third. They provide lists of books intended for Gilbert Burns.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: William Creech

Burns' Family Members: Gilbert Burns (Burns's brother)

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 17/26, 1p

Notes: Books sent 'would be acceptable' to Gilbert Burns; they have been sent to William Creech.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.18

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Davies, William

Date: 12 September 1801

Place: London

Subject: William Davies writes to Currie asking about letters which were omitted from the first edition and added to the second; he mentions a literary friend named Smyth.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Correspondence: letters omitted from the first edition to be reinstated in the second.

People Mentioned: Smyth

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 18/26, 2pp

Notes: Allusion to Davies' literary friend, Smyth: 'such a Work from your Pen would be highly interesting'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.19

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Davies, William

Date: 09 October 1801

Place: London

Subject: William Davies writes to tell Currie that there has been huge demand for editions of Burns's works, and suggests he produce a cheap complete edition for the popular market.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: John Creech; Macneill

Burns' Family Members: Present sent to Gilbert Burns (brother)

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: As well as Currie's, four or five editions of Burns have appeared across Scotland

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 19/26, 2pp

Notes: Davies suggests compiling a cheap edition of Burns's Works 'to meet these Literary Marauders'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.2

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 13 January 1798

Place: London

Subject: The publishers describe William Creech's dispute with Burns over the Edinburgh edition and list the booksellers who are stocking Currie's edition.

Burns' Biography: Assertion that Burns and his Edinburgh publisher, Creech, 'made up long before the Bard's death'.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: William Creech; Balfour; Archibald Laurie; Francis Dunlop; John Wilson; Dr. James Mundell; others

Burns' Family Members: William Creech (Edinburgh publisher) to 'serve the Family'

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Robert Heron

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/26, 2pp

Notes: Cadell and Davies on book profits: 'an Edition of 1000 Copies of an Octavo Volume yields a profit... of about One Hundred Pounds'

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.20

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 11 May 1802

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write that Burns's have been letters published without permission.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Correspondence.

People Mentioned: John McCreery; Macneill; Dr. Bostock; Alexander Cunningham

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Letters recently published in Glasgow

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 20/26, 3pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.21

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 22 January 1803

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write with Mrs Maria Riddell's suggestions for Currie's edition, and give the news that William Creech has found unpublished poems by Burns.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Songs from George Thomson's Collections.

People Mentioned: Henry Raeburn; Maria Riddell; George Thomson; William Creech; Alexander Cunningham; John McCreery

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Stock of first edition getting low; request for another edition

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 21/26, 2pp

Notes: News that William Creech has found unpublished Burns poems; Alexander Cunningham is to get an engraving of Henry Raeburn's portrait of Burns for the edition. Useful letter.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.22

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 20 February 1804

Place: London

Subject: The publishers respond to Currie's and Roscoe's objections to aspects of Robert Chalmers' Life of Burns.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: William Chalmers' Life of Burns and Currie's objections to it

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 22/26, 2pp

Notes: Currie and Roscoe succeed in getting Robert Chalmers to 'expunge the objectionable passages' of his Life of Robert Burns.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.23

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 25 May 1804

Place: London

Subject: The publishers forward Chalmers' reply. Chalmers makes changes to his Life, but signals his annoyance with Currie and Roscoe.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: William Chalmers' Life of Burns - changes made to answer Currie's objections

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 23/26, 1p

Notes: Chalmers is 'a good deal hurt at being thought to intend to lessen Burns's Merit as a Man or a Poet'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.24

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 15 June 1804

Place: London

Subject: The publishers describe Currie's visits to Burns's grave and to his widow.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: John Flaxman to sketch a design for Burns's monument; John McCreery

Burns' Family Members: Jean Armour (Burns's wife); Currie's visits

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: William Chalmers

Letter as Response to: 'your letter, with which we are just favoured'

No in Seq: 24/26, 2pp

Notes: Cadell and Davies refer to Currie's output as a physician, his Medical Reports.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.25

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 26 July 1804

Place: London

Subject: The publishers discuss the problem of piracy of Burns's works, and suggest another edition. They discuss Raeburn.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Works by the poet which have been subjected to piracy.

People Mentioned: John McCreery; John Flaxman's plans; Henry Raeburn; Thomas Stothard

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: New paintings for a new edition of Burns's works

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 25/26, 3pp

Notes: Cadell and Davies intend to bring the matter of piracy of Burns's works to the House of Lords; an outline is given of John Flaxman's memorial tomb and poplars.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.26

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 18 March 1804

Place: London

Subject: The publishers describe the new, handsome edition and describe their intent to publish a 'Companion to Robert Burns' selection.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Liston; John McCreery

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 26/26, 3pp

Notes: Cadell and Davies on the public demand for Burns: 'We are strongly urged to publish, as a Companion to Burns, a classical Selection'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.3

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 06 February 1798

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write of an Interview with Mrs Riddell & Mr Laurie and outline new proposals.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Maria Riddell; Archibald Laurie; William Creech; James Cairncross; Joseph Banks; Col. William Fullerton

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Robert Heron

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 3/26, 3pp

Notes: Cadell and Davies advise Currie to exclude the names of Robert Heron and Colonel. Fullarton from book proposals.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.4

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 21 February 1798

Place: London

Subject: The publishers tell Currie that his first edition of the Works has sold, and discuss copyright issues and payment.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: John McCreery (Currie's printer), Drs Blane and Rollo

Burns' Family Members: 'the poor Bard's family'

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie's first edition sold

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 4/26, 2pp

Notes: Cadell and Davies outline advertisements for Currie's edition appearing in the London newspapers.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.5

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 13 July 1798

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write of an increase in subscription costs of the edition, and make suggestions as to how much the increase should be.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Thomas Cadell; William Creech

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie's first edition; copyright issues

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 5/26, 3pp

Notes: Cadell and Davies change subscription costs in support of Burns's surviving family.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.6

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 19 September 1798

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write with news of Burns's Trustees' approval for the edition and describe the signing of the memorandum. They enclose the bill.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: John McCreery

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie's first and second editions

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 6/26, 2pp

Notes: Currie's editions are 'not to exceed 2000 each'; payments are to be 'free from Expence to the Family'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.7a&b

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date:

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write of copyright infringements, and suggest issuing a legal warning and attorney's letter to Urbani and Liston for illegal reproduction of songs.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Foss (attorney); Mr. Jones's 'ill judged conduct'

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Pietro Urbani; Edward Liston

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 7/26, 2pp, 2pp

Notes: Cadell and Davies say they have written to Urbani and Liston 'to warn them against any piratical publication of Burns's songs'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.8

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 18 April 1800

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write with the suggestion that the names of booksellers are to appear on the title pages of Currie's edition.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Jones; Foss (attorney, as above); John McCreery

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Queries as to the price of Currie's edition

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 8/26, 2pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 2, No.9

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cadell, Thomas and Davies, William

Date: 18 April 1800

Place: London

Subject: The publishers write with the promise that they will not publish any works selected by Currie.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Copyright; publications after Currie's third edition

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 9/26, 1p

Notes: The Works selected by Currie are to become 'effectively our Property'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 3, No.1

Recipient: Moore, Graham

Place of Recipient:

Correspondent: Currie, James

Date: 11 June 1787

Place: Liverpool

Subject: Currie writes to Graham Moore about Burns's politics, religion and work. He discusses the poet's political poems and explores the character of Caesar.

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's politics and religion - see note for further information.

Burns' Works: 'To a Mouse'

People Mentioned: Dr. John Moore; Julius Caesar - description

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Samuel Johnson, 'Life of Waller'; Currie and Roscoe's 'The Wrongs of Africa'; Edmund Burke

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Robert Heron; John Pinkerton

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/4, 5pp

Notes: Currie on Burns's politics: 'Burns ought to have kept clear of politics, & we may add religion'. Currie adds a discussion of the slave trade.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 3, No.2

Recipient: Moore, Graham

Place of Recipient:

Correspondent: Currie, James

Date: 01 February 1789

Place: Liverpool

Subject: Currie writes to Graham Moore with discussions on Andrew Aitken; he also refers to two manuscript poems by Burns.

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's relationship with Andrew Aitken.

Burns' Works: 'Epistle to a Young Friend'

People Mentioned: Andrew Aitken; William Pitt; Gregson

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: 'Miss Williams' beautiful poem'; Pierre Bayle's Dictionary

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Collection of Scots songs, 'How tempting sweet...'

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/4, 6pp

Notes: Currie discusses politics and history: he mentions the Chancellor, the King, Prime Minister William Pitt and trials.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 3, No.3

Recipient: Moore, Graham

Place of Recipient:

Correspondent: Currie, James

Date: 02 February 1797

Place: Liverpool

Subject: Currie writes to Graham Moore describing Burns's appearance, his relations with women, his drinking habits and other irregularities.

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's appearance, manners, relationships and politics.

Burns' Works: Correspondence: Currie quotes the poet's letter of 4 June 1796.

People Mentioned: JohnSyme; Henry Fuseli; Maria Riddell; Dr. John Moore; Huddleston

Burns' Family Members: Publishing 'for his family'

Writers and Texts: Disagrees with Graham Moore; to Currie, Burns is anti-Pitt; William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to: 'your letter of the 19th Jan' (1797)

No in Seq: 3/4, 8pp

Notes: Discussion of Burns's personality: Currie asserts that Burns never was 'an habitual drunkard' and speculates on the reasons for his death.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 3, No.4

Recipient: Moore, Graham

Place of Recipient:

Correspondent: Currie, James

Date: 01 March 1802

Place: Liverpool

Subject: Currie writes to Graham Moore about the Introduction to his edition. He Thomas Campbell, quoting his works, and asks about copyright laws.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Dugald Stewart

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Thomas Campbell, 'The Pleasures of Hope'; 'Ye Mariners'

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to: 'on the melancholy subject of your last'

No in Seq: 4/4, 3pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 4, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Moore, Graham

Date:

Place: Kingston, Jamaica

Subject: Graham Moore writes with criticisms of Burns's poems. He compares Burns to Shakespeare, and discusses the poet's politics.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Lorenzo de Medici

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: James Thomson; Voltaire; Marlborough; William Roscoe's Elegy

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie's dedication of his edition to Graham Moore

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/2, 8pp

Notes: Moore thanks Currie for the dedication which will 'roll me down the streams of time with the first and best of the Scotch Poets'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 4, No.2

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Moore, Graham

Date: 21 February 1789

Place: Clifford Street

Subject: Graham Moore discusses Burns's poetic subject matter, with emphasis on his politics. We are told that Currie admires Pitt and Burns' Biography: Account of Moore's hopes that Burns 'will avoid...these abtuse subjects'.

Burns' Works: 'To a Mouse'; 'To a Mountain Daisy'; 'The Cotter's Saturday Night'; 'Winter: a Dirge'

People Mentioned: William Pitt; Charles Fox; the King's 'royal malady'; Earl Grey

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Alexander Pope's moral essays

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/2, 4pp

Notes: Moore does not want to see Burns 'attempt deeply to philosophise'; 'Let him describe Nature'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 5, No.1

Recipient: Syme, John

Place of Recipient: Stamp Office, Dumfries

Correspondent: Currie, James

Date: 01 September 1796

Place: Liverpool

Subject: Currie writes to John Syme reflecting on taking the role as Burns's biographer, before he has agreed to the task. He feels unqualified for the task and so suggests alternative editors.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: William Roscoe, author of Life of Lorenzo de Medici; Andrew Dunlop

Burns' Family Members: Jean Armour (wife)

Writers and Texts: Dugald Stewart; Henry Mackenzie; Samuel Johnson's Lives; William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to: 'to your letter of the 31st' (August/Sept. 1796)

No in Seq: 1/4, 5pp

Notes: Currie suggests that John Syme should decide who is to be Burns's biographer and gives an account of his professional life as a physician in Liverpool.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 5, No.2

Recipient: Syme, John

Place of Recipient: Stamp Office, Dumfries

Correspondent: Currie, James

Date: 29 December 1799

Place: Liverpool

Subject: Currie writes to John Syme asking for details of Burns's death, and poses questions about Burns's financial position towards the end of his life.

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's death, his excise work, salary and debts at the end of his life.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members: Gilbert Burns (brother)

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/4, 4pp

Notes: This letter is badly damaged. Each of Currie's questions are answered in Syme's hand on the letter itself.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 5, No.3

Recipient: Syme, John

Place of Recipient: Dumfries

Correspondent: Currie, James

Date: 29 December 1799

Place: Liverpool

Subject: Currie discusses Burns's debts and excise income with Syme. He also discusses offers of work, and outlines the poet's dying

Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's income and his refusal to accept payments; a description of Burns as father and an account of his last words.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members: Jean Armour's (wife) prudence saves Burns from debt

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 3/4, 4pp

Notes: Currie gives Burns's last words: 'Maxwell! Macmurdo! Syme! Will none of you relieve me?', but requests that Syme 'Keep this to your own eyes'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 5, No.4

Recipient: Syme, John

Place of Recipient: Stamp Office, Dumfries

Correspondent: Currie, James

Date: 26 April 1802

Place: Liverpool

Subject: Currie writes to John Syme describing a book of Burnsian epigrams. He describes Burns's epitaphs and questions their suitability for publication. He asks about Elizabeth Cunningham, as an example of one who would be offended by Burns's satires.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Book of Burns's epigrams; his epitaphs; satires which are considered too inflammatory.

People Mentioned: Alexander Cunningham's admiration for Burns; Dr. Robert Gilchrist

Burns' Family Members: Jean Armour (wife) sent guineas by Gilchrist of Calcutta

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 4/4, 3pp

Notes: Currie decides that Burns's satires are not to be published - most of their subjects are still alive; his epigrams are too 'severe'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 6, No.1
Recipient: Currie, James
Place of Recipient: Liverpool
Correspondent: Syme, John
Date: 16 August 1796
Place: Ryedale, Dumfries
Subject: John Syme writes describing how Currie's edition will provide income for Burns's family. He describes the preparation of the manuscript, discusses Burns's works and gives sketches of the poet's life and character.
Burns' Biography: Account of Burns's conversational skills and a description of a dramatic quarrel between the poet and Syme.
Burns' Works: 'bawdy songs & some fervid effusions'; correspondence.
People Mentioned: Maria Riddell; Dugald Stewart; John McMurdo; Haig; William Maxwell-MSS
Burns' Family Members: Moneys to keep Burns's family for 2-3 years, giving the children free education
Writers and Texts:
Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:
Letter as Response to: 'your favour of the 12th' (August 1796)
No in Seq: 1/1, 6pp
Notes: Syme declines the role of Burns biographer and tells of a quarrel with Burns in which the poet's sword drawn: 'Keep this a secret'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 7, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Anderson, Robert

Date: 19 September 1799

Place: Heriot's Green, Edinburgh

Subject: Anderson writes with details of items he has forwarded to Currie, including songs, poems and correspondence.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Songs; assertion that Alexander Dalziel holds poems and letters by the poet.

People Mentioned: Alex Dalziel (factor); Earl of Glencairn; others

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: John Ramsay of Ochtertyre, George Thomson, 'Orpheus Caledonius', Macdonald's 'Highland Airs'

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/5, 4pp

Notes: Also mentions Alexander Campbell's 'Introduction to the History of Poetry in Scotland'

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 7, No.2

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Anderson, Robert

Date: 28 September 1799

Place: Heriot's Green, Edinburgh

Subject: Anderson describes Burns's wide education in literature and outlines his favourite writers. He also explores the 'heaven-taught ploughman' theory and questions Burns's naivety

Burns' Biography: Description of Burns's acquaintance with all poetry, and a challenge to the poet's self-image as illiterate.

Burns' Works: Correspondence: letter to Patrick Miller.

People Mentioned: Alexander Frazer Tytler; Edward Young; Hawkins; Robert Aiken; many imitators of Burns; Allan Ramsay

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Alexander Cunningham; William Shenstone; Robert Fergusson; Fanny Burney; 'The Bee'

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/5, 7pp

Notes: Encloses 'Introduction' and 'Orpheus'; allusion to Alexander Frazer-Tytler's 'Memoirs of K. James'

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 7, No.3

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Anderson, Robert

Date: 27 October 1799

Place: Heriot's Green, Edinburgh

Subject: Anderson describes his relationship with Burns and comments on his character and views on religion.

Burns' Biography: Descriptions of Burns's time in Edinburgh, his politics, religion, appearance and manners.

Burns' Works: 'To a Mouse'; 'vulgar abuse of Fox' in political poetry.

People Mentioned: Earl of Glencairn; David Ramsay (printer;Courant)

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Miss Carmichael; Poems by Landor; The Edinburgh Magazine; The Edinburgh Courant

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Kilmarnock Edition procured by Robert Anderson

Letter as Response to: 'your favour of the 30th' (September 1799)

No in Seq: 3/5, 8pp

Notes: Burns's politics: 'he was a Tory, an idolator of monarchy and a Jacobite'; Anderson cannot trace Burns's evolution to Republicanism

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 7, No.4

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Anderson, Robert

Date: 28 June 1800

Place: Heriot's Green, Edinburgh

Subject: Anderson sends notice of a parcel of books in the post for Currie. He tells that he is to edit Drummond of Hawthornden's works and discusses Grainger.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Thomas Campbell; Dugald Stewart

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Miss Bannerman; Poems; Henry Erskine; Lady Grange; Hector Macneill; Joanna Baillie

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to: 'your very obliging favour of 26th March' (1800)

No in Seq: 4/5, 4pp

Notes: This letter was originally misfiled in the Cadell and Davies Envelope of correspondence - it has now been replaced.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 7, No.5

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Anderson, Robert

Date: 13 January 1801

Place: Heriot's Green, Edinburgh

Subject: Anderson writes to say he has received Currie's first edition and criticises it. He discusses marriage and Burns's memory.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Professor Alexander Frazer Tytler; Mundie; John Ramsay of Ochertyre

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: Hector Macneill's Poems dedicated to Currie; Anderson's Life of Smollett

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 5/5, 4pp

Notes: Anderson on Currie's edition: 'Your work, though highly interesting and instructive is [not] in every respect perfect'

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 8, No.1

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cunningham, Lady Elizabeth

Date: 13 September 1799

Place: Coates

Subject: Elizabeth Cunningham discusses the publication of personal letters with Burns in Currie's edition and gives personality sketches.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Correspondence: Cunningham begs that none of her letters to Burns be published.

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to: Responds to various 'enquiries'

No in Seq: 1/4, 3pp

Notes: Cunningham protects her reputation: 'the best way to save them [family's feelings] is to say as little on it as can be said'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 8, No.2

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cunningham, Lady Elizabeth

Date: 16 September 1799

Place: Coates

Subject: Elizabeth Cunningham asks for all copies of her letter to be sent back - she does not want her correspondence with Burns to be published.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works: Cunningham again begs that her letter to Burns should never be published.

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/4, 2pp

Notes: Cunningham alludes to 'the unlucky letter of mine which has occasioned me so much anxiety'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 8, No.3

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cunningham, Lady Elizabeth

Date: 26 September 1799

Place: Coates

Subject: Elizabeth Cunningham thanks Currie for complying with her request to return her letters, and forwards her cousin, Jane Carr's, address

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 3/4, 2pp

Notes: Cunningham hands over to her cousin, Jane Carr, who can answer Currie's questions 'with less painful emotions, than I can do'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 8, No.4

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Carr, Jane

Date: 21 November 1799

Place: East Parade, Leeds

Subject: Jane Carr talks of her cousin, Elizabeth Cunningham, and describes a portrait of portrait of Lord Glencairn.

Burns' Biography: Account of the Earl of Glencairn's introduction of Burns to the world.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Earl of Glencairn; Elizabeth Cunningham

Burns' Family Members: Edition 'for the benefit of his family'

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Currie's edition: Jane Carr and her husband ask to be subscribers

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 1/2, 2pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 8, No.5

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Carr, Jane

Date: 30 November 1799

Place: East Parade, Leeds

Subject: Carr gives an outline of the character of Glencairn and alludes to the secrecy regarding letters between Burns and her family.

Burns' Biography: An account of the Earl of Glencairn's introduction of Burns.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members: Eager to protect 'the feelings of the family'

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/2, 6pp

Notes: Carr asserts that 'many circumstances [are] too delicate to meet the public eye', and that Currie should publish 'only what is proper'.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 8, No.6

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Cunningham, Lady Elizabeth

Date: 20 July 1800

Place: Coates

Subject: Elizabeth Cunningham praises Currie's biography, describing his sketch of Burns as 'faithfully delineated'.

Burns' Biography: Assertion that Burns's 'was a hard fate'.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned:

Burns' Family Members: Currie's edition's as financial contribution to Burns's family

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Lady Elizabeth Cunningham's comments on Currie's biography

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 4/4, 2pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 9, No.1
Recipient: Currie, James
Place of Recipient: Liverpool
Correspondent: Dunlop, Mrs Francis
Date: 30 January 1797
Place: Dunlop
Subject: Francis Dunlop writes to Currie describing Burns's language and education, making comments on Currie's biography. She makes reference to Burns's surviving family.
Burns' Biography: Description of Burns's 'early instruction' and an account of his farm labour.
Burns' Works: 'Epistle to Davie'.
People Mentioned: Miss McAdam, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Currie
Burns' Family Members: 'The widow and the orphan', Jean Armour (wife); Gilbert Burns (brother); Frank-Wallace (son)
Writers and Texts: Poem 'by a Lady in the North of Scotland'
Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:
Letter as Response to: 'a long letter' of 'some time ago'
No in Seq: 1/9, 4pp
Notes: Alongside her letter, Dunlop sends correspondence, a journal and an amber necklace.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 9, No.2

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Dunlop, Mrs Francis

Date: 03 June 1797

Place: Dunlop

Subject: Francis Dunlop describes the offer of an 'Indian Gentleman"'s help for Currie, and discusses publishing.

Burns' Biography: Outline of Burns's membership of societies; relation of Gilbert Burns's anecdotes on his brother.

Burns' Works: Lett: 'dull enough under the letters'; Burns's use of the air, 'Logan Water'.

People Mentioned: 'Gentleman from India'; John Syme; Peter Pindar (John Walcot)

Burns' Family Members: Gilbert Burns (brother)

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: James Johnson's 'Musical Museum'; Edition of Burns by William Creech and Thomas Cadell

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 2/9, 4pp

Notes: A large portion of this letter is torn away; Dunlop quotes from two letters.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 9, No.3

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Dunlop, Mrs Francis

Date: 02 December 1797

Place: Dunlop

Subject: Francis Dunlop writes to Currie to alert him that her subscription papers and promised packages have been lost in the post. She describes the lot of womankind.

Burns' Biography: Comments on Burns's life as a ploughman and the tragedy of his early death.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Mr. McAdam; Mr. Rankin; book carriers; Richard Campbell

Burns' Family Members: Gilbert Burns (brother); William Burnes (father)

Writers and Texts: Tour of Scotland

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 3/9, 4pp

Notes: Dunlop sends letters of Burns to father and mentions Miss Currie.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 9, No.4

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Dunlop, Mrs Francis

Date: 03 December 1797

Place: Dunlop

Subject: Francis Dunlop reminds Currie of her lost papers, and describes 'a young man by the name of Adair', asking for Currie's help.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: 'a young man of the name of Adair'; Noble family

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 4/9, 3pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 9, No.5

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Dunlop, Mrs Francis

Date: 05 November 1798

Place: Dunlop

Subject: Francis Dunlop writes to Currie about forgiveness, and encomiates Scotland. She describes Burns's sons and their education.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: William Wallace; Graham Moore; John Howard

Burns' Family Members: Sons travel 40 miles to see Francis Dunlop, Jean Armour (wife)

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 5/9, 3pp

Notes: Dunlop describes the illness of Burns's youngest child, and tells Currie that she has read his biography with pleasure.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 9, No.6

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Dunlop, Mrs Francis

Date: 03 November 1798

Place: Dunlop

Subject: Francis Dunlop writes to ask Currie about what will become of the posthumous work of 'our dead poet'.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: William Wallace

Burns' Family Members:

Writers and Texts: William Roscoe

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 6/9, 3pp

Notes:

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 9, No.7

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Dunlop, Mrs Francis

Date: 20 April 1800

Place: Dunlop

Subject: Francis Dunlop writes describing her acquaintance with Currie, the Moore family (Sir John and his son, Graham) and Burns and asks about the forthcoming edition.

Burns' Biography: Discussion of Burns's fame and genius.

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: Dr. John Moore; Graham Moore

Burns' Family Members: 'the widow and orphan'

Writers and Texts: Volumes sent by Currie; Dunlop asks for the first volume of the Life of Burns

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to: letter dated 19 January (1800)

No in Seq: 7/9, 3pp

Notes: Dunlop talks of loss of a cousin, a son of 'Mrs Vans' (?) in the Royal Charlotte.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 9, No.7

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Dunlop, Mrs Francis

Date: 07 August 1800

Place: Dunlop

Subject: Francis Dunlop writes to praise Currie's biography, describing Scotland and the edition as its 'best product'.

Burns' Biography: Comments on the 'merits of the Peasantry, the memory of the poet'.

Burns' Works: Popularity of Burns's poetry: 'Copies sell fast at Glasgow...'

People Mentioned: Dr. Charles; Braph & Reid (booksellers?); Macintosh

Burns' Family Members: Currie as 'protector and provider' to Jean Armour (wife) and children

Writers and Texts:

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars: Reads Currie's first volume all night until 6am; description of its swift sales

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 8/9, 3pp

Notes: Dunlop talks of her sons, and describes her grandsons' occupations; she also discusses medicine with Currie.

Full database ordered by recipient

Mitchell Cat No's: Envelope 9, No.8

Recipient: Currie, James

Place of Recipient: Liverpool

Correspondent: Dunlop, Mrs Francis

Date: 20 August 1803

Place: Dunlop

Subject: Francis Dunlop writes introducing Currie to William Ferguson a physician in Dunlop, and gives news of the death of Frank Burns, the poet's son.

Burns' Biography:

Burns' Works:

People Mentioned: William Ferguson, Miss McAdam, Mrs. Gladstones

Burns' Family Members: Frank Burns (son), 'the loveliest boy possible'

Writers and Texts: Mrs [Anne] Grant's [of Laggan] Poems

Burns Editions, Editors, Scholars:

Letter as Response to:

No in Seq: 9/9, 3pp

Notes: Dunlop wishes to introduce Currie to Ferguson, a medical man in her district.