

Society for Latin American Studies University of Glasgow

Thursday 6th & Friday 7th April 2017
Conference Programme

Wednesday 5th March – Public event

18.00 – 20.00 Glasgow and Latin America: Ties through Solidarity (sponsored by Wiley)

Pre-conference film screening and discussion in Kelvin Hall Lecture Theatre, 1445 Argyle St, Glasgow G3 8AW

Nae pasarán (dir Felipe Bustos Sierra, 15 mins)

¿Dónde están? (dir Jan Nimmo, 5 mins)

Thursday 6th March

09.00 – 10.00	Registration (Hunter Halls)
09.30 – 11.00	Panel Session 1
	Colombia: Perspectives on the Peace Process [Turnbull Room]
	Consumption, ethics and aesthetics in contemporary Latin American culture [Senate Room]
	Violence, a pending task in Mexico [East Quad Lecture Theatre]
	Patagonia and her others [Gilbert Scott Room 250]
	Latin American music: Researching archives and live performance in local and translocal settings [Gilbert Scott Room 253]
	Environment and Sustainability [Forehall]
	Emotional violence in Latin American visual culture [Gilbert Scott Room 251]
	SLAS Committee Meeting [Melville Room]
11.00 – 11.30	Tea and Coffee (Hunter Halls)

11.30 – 13.00	Panel Session 2
	The politics and culture of gender [Melville Room]
	Indigenous people, politics and identity in Bolivia [Gilbert Scott Room 251]
	Reflections around Rio (Part 1): Football and Nationhood in Colombia and Mexico [East Quad Lecture Theatre]
	Violence, law, and justice in modern Mexico [Gilbert Scott Room 250]
	Social movements, democracy and alternative development models in Latin America [Gilbert Scott Room 253]
	Communicating Dissent in South America [Turnbull Room]
	Latin American Literatures [Forehall]
	PILAS at SLAS: How to Get a Job in Academia? Networking, Applications and Job Interviews [Senate Room]
13.00 – 14.00	Lunch (Hunter Halls)

14.00 – 15.30	Panel Session 3
	Land, religion and indigeneity [Melville Room]
	Argentine Film & TV [Turnbull Room]
	Theoretical perspectives on Latin America [Gilbert Scott Room 251]
	Gender and sexuality politics [Gilbert Scott Room 250]
	Reflections around Rio (Part 2): New perspectives on football in Latin America: Football, geography and gender in Brazil [East Quad Lecture Theatre]
	Reconfiguring Indigeneity through Film (Part 1) [Senate Room]
	Understanding a ‘system of violence’: An analysis of women’s experiences on the U.S-Mexico border city of Juarez [Gilbert Scott Room 253]
	Narratives of (non)belonging: Living and making the city [Gilbert Scott Room 356]
	Mexican democracy at a crossroads...yet again: Looking towards the 2018 elections [Forehall]
15.30 – 16.00	Tea and Coffee (Hunter Halls)

16.00 – 17.30	Panel session 4
	Argentine Literature [Melville Room]
	Cities [Turnbull Room]
	Reconfiguring Indigeneity through Film (Part 2) – Roundtable discussion [Senate Room]
	End of the left turn in Latin America? New socio-political dynamics in focus [Gilbert Scott Room 250]
	Politics, Violence and Borders [Gilbert Scott Room 253]
	Feminist research through a masculinities lens [Gilbert Scott Room 356]
	Whither housing policy post UN-Habitat III and in an era of post neo-liberalism? [East Quad Lecture Theatre]
	Migration & Transnational Crossings [Gilbert Scott Room 251]
	Contested spaces: land and natural resources in Latin America [Forehall]
17.45 – 19.00	Keynote Address (Kelvin Gallery) – (Re)Assembling Feminisms: Perspectives from Brazil Prof Sonia Alvarez, Leonard J. Horwitz Professor of Latin American Politics Director, Center for Latin American, Caribbean and Latino Studies, University of Massachusetts (Amherst) Introductory remarks by from Professor Anton Muscatelli, Principal and Vice Chancellor of the University of Glasgow
19.30 for 20.00	Drinks Reception (sponsored by Glasgow City Council) followed by Dinner (Hilton Grosvenor Hotel, 1-9 Grosvenor Terrace, Glasgow G12 0TA)

Friday 7th March

09.00 – 10.30	Panel Session 5
	Cuban Literature and Culture [Gilbert Scott Room 251]
	Memory politics and the legacy of authoritarianism [Melville Room]
	Brazil: Participation and protest [Turnbull Room]
	Research frontiers in colonial Latin American history [Gilbert Scott Room 250]
	Geographies of memory: Conflict, culture and commemoration in Latin America [Gilbert Scott Room 253]
	Return of the developmental state in disguise: Trade-offs between ecological and economic sustainability [Gilbert Scott Room 356]
	Identities in transition: Trajectories of gender, race, ethnicity and power [Forehall]
	Mexican Literature & Culture (part 1) [Senate Room]
10.30 – 10.45	Tea and Coffee (Hunter Halls)
11.00 – 12.00	SLAS AGM [Senate Room]

12.00 – 13.30	Panel Session 6
	Latin American Cultures [Melville Room]
	Citizenship and the state [Turnbull Room]
	A new look at an old topic: The impact of the 1970s on Raul Castro's Cuba [Gilbert Scott Room 251]
	Colombia at the crossroads: Conversations about war, resistance and transformation (Part 1) [East Quad Lecture Theatre]
	Chile and the Inter-American Human Rights System [Gilbert Scott Room 250]
	Illicit drug economies, governance, and the security-development nexus in Latin America [Gilbert Scott Room 253]
	The Cambiemos government in Argentina: Menemismo reloaded, Kirchnerismo's antipode or something different? [Gilbert Scott Room 356]
	Mexican Literature & Culture (part 2) [Senate Room]
	The Olympics in Latin America [Forehall]
13.30 – 14.30	Lunch (Hunter Halls)

14.30 – 16.00	Panel Session 7
	US/Latino relations [Melville Room]
	Media/communications [Turnbull Room]
	Law, policy & inequalities [Gilbert Scott Room 356]
	Colombia at the crossroads: Conversations about war, resistance and transformation (Part 2) [East Quad Lecture Theatre]
	Political economy of Brazil since the 1990s [Gilbert Scott Room 253]
	Gender, violence and identity: Challenging violence in Latin America [Gilbert Scott Room 250]
	Material dialogues: Cultural reflections on violence and politics in contemporary Argentina [Senate Room]