

University of Glasgow

Workshop on “Disadvantage” University of Glasgow, 6-7 July 2017

DAY 1 - July 6 (co-funded by ESRC-IAA)

10:30-11:00 REGISTRATION, COFFEE AND WELCOME

11:00-13:00 Policy Panel: RSE YAS Brexit Report and Discussion

James Blake (Napier, YAS) - “Creative Industries”

Daniela Sime (Strathclyde, YAS) - “Children and Immigration”

Neil McLennan (Aberdeen, YAS) - “Education”

Theo Koutmeridis (Glasgow, YAS) - “Economy”

13:00-14:00 LUNCH

14:00-15:30 Session 1: Culture

“Sacred Security: Threat, Vulnerability, and the Protection of Sacred Art in Nepal”

Donna Yates (Glasgow)

“How much do consumers value interoperability? Evidence from a market for consumer devices”

Kris Erickson, Jesus Rodriguez-Perez, Swagatam Sinha (Glasgow)

15:30-17:00 Session 2: Politics

“Contests and Electoral Competition”

Orestis Troumpounis (Lancaster)

“The Social Dynamics of Riots: Evidence from the Captain Swing Riots 1830-1831”

Toke Aidt (Cambridge), Gabriel Leon (King’s College London), Max Satchell (Cambridge)

17:00-17:15 COFFEE

17:15-18:15 Keynote I

KEYNOTE: “Incarceration, Employment and Recidivism”

Manudeep Bhuller (Oslo), Gordon Dahl (University of California San Diego), Katrine Løken (University of Bergen), Magne Mogstad (University of Chicago)

19:00 DINNER

DAY 2 - July 7

10:45-11:00 COFFEE

11:00-13:00 PhD Training: “Quantitative Textual Analysis”

Andres Azqueta Gavaldon (Glasgow)

13:00-14:00 LUNCH

14:00-15:00 Keynote II

KEYNOTE: “Disadvantage and Empowerment”

Sayantana Ghosal (Dean at the College of Social Sciences, Glasgow)

15:00-16:30 Session 3: Crime

“Incarcerate one to calm the others: Spillover effects of prison among criminal groups”

Arnaud Philippe (Toulouse)

“The Changing Returns to Crime: Do Criminals Respond to Prices”

Mirko Draca (Warwick), Theodore Koutmeridis (Glasgow), Stephen Machin (LSE)

16:00-16:15 COFFEE

16:30-18:00 Session 4: Security

Cybersecurity and Human Behaviour

Karen Renaud (Glasgow)

“The Effect of Stolen Goods Markets on Crime: Pawnshops, Property Thefts and the Gold Rush of the 2000’s”

Rocco D’Este (Sussex)

19:00 DINNER

This event is organized by Dr Theodore Koutmeridis and it is co-funded by the British Academy Rising Star Engagement Award (BARSEA) he has been awarded. This event is associated with the ‘Behaviour, Structure and Interventions’ (BSI) research network, the BARSEA Early Career Network on ‘Inequality Conflict and Violence’, the Royal Society of Edinburgh and its Young Academy of Scotland. This workshop focuses on ‘Disadvantage’ and its links to RCUK ‘Global Challenges Research Fund’ priorities. Among others the workshop includes presentations on inequality, crime and sustainability.

More details about the BARSEA Early Career Network on ‘Inequality Conflict and Violence’:

<http://www.gla.ac.uk/research/az/bsi/inequalityconflictandviolence/>

