

UNIVERSEUM 2018 pre-conference training workshop

University of Glasgow, 11-13 June 2018

Hunterian Collections Study Centre at Kelvin Hall

(The main UNIVERSEUM conference takes place 13-15 June 2018)

UNIVERSITY OBJECTS' JOURNEYS:

From the stores to sharing with different user communities

Draft Programme

Day 1 – Building and managing collections

Monday, 11 June 2018, Hunterian Collections Study Centre, Kelvin Hall, 1st & 2nd Floor

08:45 Arrival at Kelvin Hall. You will be greeted at the Main Entrance, ground floor and taken to the Hunterian Reading Room, Kelvin Hall 2nd floor

9.00-10.30 Session 1.1. Welcome coffee and Introductions - Universeum Executive Board & Steph Scholten, Director, Hunterian, Maria Economou, Curator/Senior Lecturer in Museum Studies, Hunterian and Information Studies &, Monica Callaghan, Head of Education, Hunterian; Aims, instructions, and context, warm-up group activity
Location: Hunterian Reading Room, Kelvin Hall 2nd floor

10.30-11.30 Session 1.2. “Object-based learning” – Maria Economou with Malcolm Chapman, Head of Collections Management, Hunterian
Location: Teaching Lab, Hunterian Collections Study Centre, Kelvin Hall 1st floor

11.30 -13.00 Session 1.3. “Accession, De-accession, or Put back on the shelf? Making decisions about neglected 20th-century objects” – Nicky Reeves, Hunterian Curator of Scientific and Medical History Collections, Hunterian
Location: Hunterian Collections Study Centre, Kelvin Hall 1st floor [Search Room 1]

13.00 – 14:00 Lunch break & debriefing opportunity at KH Hunterian Reading Room

14.00 -15.30 Session 1.4. “Trafficking of antiquities and cultural property” - Donna Yates, Lecturer, Sociology, University of Glasgow
Location: Hunterian Collections Study Centre, Kelvin Hall 1st floor [Search Room 1]

15.30-16.00 Coffee break & session debrief at Hunterian Reading Room, Kelvin Hall 2nd floor

16.00 -17.00 Session 1.5. “Investigating Object Journeys” - Steph Scholten, Hunterian Director & Anne Dulau, Art Curator
Location: Hunterian Collections Study Centre, Kelvin Hall 1st floor [Search Room 2]

17.00 -18:00 Sum up of the day. Presentations from rapporteurs & discussion among participants, preparation for main conference presentation
Location: Hunterian Reading Room, Kelvin Hall 2nd floor

18:30 - Welcome Dinner - Pizzas and drinks
Location: Hunterian Reading Room, Kelvin Hall 2nd floor or (weather permitting) Hunterian Offices' Balcony

Day 2 – Communicating and sharing collections

Tuesday, 12 June 2018, Main Glasgow University Campus (Hunterian Art Gallery, Special Collections at Level 12 of Glasgow University Library, Hunterian Museum)

Hunterian Art Gallery (in front of UoG Library building), ground floor, meet at Foyer

- 9.00-10.30 Session 2.1. “Working internationally and collaboratively in exhibitions”
Case study 1: The Philosophy Chamber: Repurposing an exhibition from Harvard to Glasgow - Lola Sanchez-Jauregui, Art Curator, Hunterian;
Case study 2: William Hunter’s Tercentenary exhibition - Mungo Campbell, Deputy Director, Hunterian
Location: in the Hunterian Art Gallery at Philosophy Chamber exhibition
- 10.30-11.00 Coffee break & debrief at Hunterian Art Gallery
- 11.00 -12.30 Session 2.2. “Student engagement and museum education” - Ruth Fletcher, Student Engagement Officer & Monica Callaghan, Head of Education, Hunterian
Location: John McIntyre building (opposite Main Gate), Room 201 (ground floor)
- 12.30 – 13:30 Lunch break at university restaurant One A, The Square, in main campus
- 13.30 -15.00 Session 2.3 “Using Social Media to Engage with Special Collections” - Johanna Green, Lecturer in Book History and Digital Humanities, Information Studies, UoG
Location: Special Collections, Level 12, Henry Heaney Room, UofG Library
- 15.00-15.15 Walk to Hunterian Museum (Main Glasgow Univ Building) (coffee/tea in Museum)
- 15.15 -17.00 Session 2.4. “Digital interpretation – EMOTIVE digital storytelling” - Maria Economou & EMOTIVE research team: Hilary Young and Emilia Sosnowska
Location: Hunterian Museum, Main Glasgow University building, Antonine Wall gallery
- 17:00-17:05 Walk from Hunterian Museum to Kelvin Hall
- 17.05 -18.00 Sum up of the day. Presentations from rapporteurs & discussion, preparation for main conference presentation
Location: Hunterian Reading Room, Kelvin Hall 2nd floor

Day 3, 13th June 2018 am, Hunterian Reading Room, Kelvin Hall, 2nd floor

- 9.00-10:30 Session 3.1. Independent work by workshop participants to finalise presentation for main Universeum 2018 conference. Computers and printer provided. Coffee and tea making facilities will be available during the morning.
The workshop presentation is planned for 13:45-14:15 (after the lunch break) in the on the first day of the conference (Wed 13 June). The presentation should be 20mins + 10 mins for questions/discussion. The content of the presentation will largely depend on what the delegates want to present, but in general, it should summarise the key activities and/or issues discussed during the first two days of the workshop.
Workshop participants need to remember to take photos, videos etc during whole workshop to have AV material to use for the presentation.
- 11:00 Main Universeum Conference start – Kelvin Hall Lecture Theatre, ground floor

Draft programme for start of Main Universeum Conference

<https://www.gla.ac.uk/events/universeum2018/programme/>