

MPA NETWORK

All members of the ICS Management, Professional and Administrative job family are invited to get involved in the MPA Peer Network.

This grassroots network is independent and run by a small committee of volunteers. It aims to provide a social and professional network to facilitate communication and collaboration between MPA colleagues of all grades across the University.

IS THERE MORE ICS SHOULD BE DOING FOR MPA STAFF?

There is a professional and support services subgroup as part of the ICS Athena SWAN committee. We are looking for new ideas that might improve work-life balance, career progression and job satisfaction for MPA staff.
